A well-proportioned three-bedroom detached bungalow, offering versatile living accommodation and further potential, situated on a corner plot and complemented by a detached double garage.

The main residence comprises a spacious kitchen/breakfast room fitted with a wall and base units, a good size lounge featuring doors opening directly onto the rear garden, creating a bright and inviting living space. A substantial conservatory provides additional reception space, ideal for dining or relaxing while enjoying views over the garden. There are two well-proportioned double bedrooms within the main house, served by a family bathroom.

Accessed via the conservatory is a separate bedroom with its own en suite shower room, offering excellent potential as a self-contained annex, guest suite, or space for independent living.

A feature of the property is the large loft area, which benefits from high ceilings and presents excellent scope for conversion, subject to the necessary planning permissions (STPP).
